

GRADE SEVEN 2016

Our Grade 7's are halfway through their last year at primary school! We caught up on some of their hopes, wishes and dreams for the future. Also, their fears and finally some wise words on mottos to live by.

- to live a good, happy life – but not a perfect one
- that my whole family would never die

Hopes, wishes and dreams

- * for South Africa to prosper
- * make my parents proud

 For a woman president in South Africa*

 for rape, abuse and xenophobia to stop*  that my family would win the Lotto*

 to help my parents and live life*

 to be loved by my classmates*

 that the world would be a better place*  for my country Nigeria, to be beautiful like South Africa*

Occupational Aspirations—singer soccer player *aircraft controller * accountant
* advocate* cardiologist *scientist *business woman and man
*taxi driver *pilot * pediatrician*

The past is the past and the future has yet to come. The present is today so spend it wisely.

A room without books is like a body without a soul.

High achievement takes place in the framework of high expectation.

Always be prepared

FEARS

*Seeing people die and families falling apart dying before pursuing my dreams failing at school* losing my family* not achieving anything* falling pregnant while still a xenophobia, disrespect to other cultures and religions; war *drug addiction *the mysteries of life that we do not understand being chased by a dog that doesn't know the meaning of "voetsek"!

*Thank you Grade 7's for sharing your hopes and fears for the future.
As you grow in years and mature in thought, the world will expand for you. We wish for you all that is good and happy as you soon proceed on to secondary school.*
